NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL
Life Insurance
COMPANY!
OF BOSTON.
INCORPORATED, 1835. ASSETS, $9,000,000.

The only Company on the Pacific Coast governed by the MASSACHUSETTS NON-FORFEITURE LAW.

That there is absolutely no forfeiture in this Company these examples, furnish sufficient proof:

A. C. E. Miller, of Portland, Oregon, insured under Policy No. 13,054, for $5,000, died over six months after the premium was due and unpaid. The $5,000 was promptly paid the widow, less the unpaid premium.

J. W. Jones, of Colusa, Cal., insured under Policy No. 33,016, for $10,000, died over four months after the premium was due and unpaid. The $10,000 was promptly paid the widow, less the unpaid premium.

Is it not an object for you to insure in a Company where your policy is protected by such a wise and equitable law?

☞ This Company is not restricted to investing its funds in Massachusetts. The funds are invested in the best securities, where the largest interest is obtainable. Thus it has been enabled to return as dividends to the policy holders, in cash, during the last four years, $2,466,109 00. Dividends payable annually in cash. EVERSON & MIDDLEMISS,
General Agents Pacific Branch.
Office northeast corner California and Sansome streets, (opposite Bank of California,) San Francisco.

EQUITABLE
Life Assurance Company.
OF THE UNITED STATES.

Gross Assets, Jan. 1st, 1870,
$10,510,824!

No. of Policies Issued in 1869, 13,072.

AMOUNT INSURED IN 1869, $50,492,941.

Insures at as LOW RATES as are consistent with safety to the Company and the assured.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States was organized in 1859, with assets amounting to $120,772, and issued in that year 277 policies. In 1869, the number of policies issued was 13,073; amount insured, $50,502,941; total assets Jan. 1st, 1870, $10,510,824.

The Equitable has outstripped all other Companies in the amount of business transacted, and never had but one case of litigation, and in that case it was no fault of the Company, but because of different parties claiming the amount the policy called for.

MERELY A MENIAL.

"You are altogether too harsh, Cornelia, in your mode of treating Laura Lyon since she became a member of our family. The poor girl has more than once noticed, I am very certain, your haughty, supercilious behavior."

"Let her notice it mama," was Cornelia Stanhope's scornfully spoken answer, while the young lady's handsome dark eyes flashed imperiously enough. "For my part, I find it quite impossible to restrain my dislike for that girl. As for her being a member of our family, I must say, mama, that I decidedly object to her being called anything of the sort. She is dependent upon our kindness—an orphan to whom we have charitably given shelter, nothing more."

"But she is your cousin, Cornelia—the child of your dead father's dead sister."

"Who made a horrible low marriage, by the way," retorted the young lady, "if report speaks correctly. It is useless for you to scold me, mamma, about my manner of conducting myself toward Laura. Between ourselves, I think it very probable that I shall treat her much worse before I treat her much better. She is an out-and-out nuisance."

"You are shockingly wicked to call her so," exclaimed Mrs. Stanhope, who, though what was termed a weak woman, was now and then given to transitory fits of strong-mindedness in her mode of defending those she loved. "There is nothing which you have asked Laura to do since her arrival in the house that she has refused, or even hesitated——"

"Nonsense, mama. I know what you are going to say," Miss Stanhope broke in. "Of course, Laura has arranged my hair for the opera and for balls whenever I have asked her. She has also done several other menial services. I don't know that I am particularly obliged to her for performing them. She is certainly well fed and clothed at the household expense; and she should consider our kindness in thus feeding and clothing her ample payment for the slight favors which are required at her hands. And now, please discontinue this argument on the subject of Laura. Apropos of the opera, Lord Ellery has sent word to know whether you and I desired to occupy his box this evening. I immediately wrote an acceptance in reply to the note, feeling sure that you would like to see 'Faust' once again."

"Will he accompany us?"

A faint tinge of color stole in Cornelia Stanhope's olive cheek. "Of course, mama," she answered. "I suppose so," Mrs. Stanhope said. "Do you know, Cornelia, that I consider the attentions of Lord Ellery most marked and devoted toward yourself?"

"Do you, mama?"—a short nervous laugh followed the words.

"His father, the Marquis of Fancourt, is very rich, is he not?"

"Worth two hundred thousand dollars a year, I believe."

"And you would marry him—if he asked you, Cornelia?"

The young lady bit her lip. The sentence, "if he asked you," grated very disagreeably upon her ear. During the past two or three weeks, it had grown the ruling purpose of Cornelia Stanhope's thoughts to beome the wife of Viscount Ellery. She had resovled that no amount of stern, steadfast endeavor should be lacking on her part in the matter of attaining this object. It is indeed very probable that she had not yet fully satisfied herself as to whether love for Lord Ellery formed even a slight motive of her present course of action, but it is altogether sure that she was aware how dominant a motive worldly interest formed.

"How do you know that he has not already asked me, mama?" she said in answer to her mother's question. "He calls here very often, and you seldom interfere with our tete-a-tetes.

Then Cornelia gave a little musical laugh, that left her mother in doubt as to whether she was serious or in fun, and disappeared very abruptly from the room. But the truth was that she only hoped the Viscount would propose; he really had not done so yet. Meanwhile on the afternoon of this conversation between mother and daughter, pretty blonde-haired Laura Lyon sat in her small out-of-the-way chamber on the third floor of Mrs. Stanhope's residence, and wondered what special reason Providence had for sending her into the world, and whether, since she seemed to have been created to be snubbed and despised, and trampled on, it would not be much better if her thoroughly useless existence came to a close altogether.

These were very wicked thoughts, of course, but then poor Laura, who had known a life far different from the present one, was excusable, perhaps, for thinking them. Hers had, indeed, been a life of quiet domestic happiness, until that dark eighteenth year, in which death followed upon death with such fearful suddenness, and she was made an orphan almost before she had comprehended the fact. Then had come the knowledge of her father's insolvent condition and her utter pennilessness.

Silently to herself—while she looked that afternoon upon the snowy pavements of the street beneath her, and felt the cold of a rapidly strengthening December wind sweep past the panes, and chill them more and more with every gust—silently to herself, I say, did Laura Lyon recall the handsome, genial face of one whom she had known and loved four years ago. It was the old story. They swore very passionate vows to each other; but the course of true love had run roughly, indeed, and her father, unwilling that Laura should become the wife of a poor man, had forbidden the meetings. And at last the lover had resolved to go and fight the world; and a final stolen meeting had taken place between them and he went to India, and—so it had all ended. If he had ever written to her, Laura had not received his letters.

Quite lost in her sad thoughts, she let the day slowly darken until it had left her little room completely in shadow. At last a servant knocked at the door, saying, "dinner is served, Miss Lyon;" and Laura presently descended to the dining room.

Mrs. Stanhope and her daughter were already seated at the table when their relative entered the room. The latter's face, Laura could not help observing, wore a sort of angry scowl. Miss Stanhope soon gave vocal proof that she was annoyed.

"Laura," she exclaimed, "you have a horrid habit of coming down to dinner. You almost always enter the dining-room after soup has been served. Perhaps you would be able to appear more punctually if we rang several peals of a huge bell."

Laura volunteered no response, understanding how useless such a course would prove. She seated herself, and with the exception of a few words to Mrs. Stanhope to excuse her, received that lady's acquiescence, and left the dining-room.

She knew that her calm, patient silence had in no manner shamed the haughty, supercillious nature of her cousin Cornelia. She knew that nothing could ever change that cousin's contemptuous, cruel treatment—nothing except either her own absence, or that of Cornelia, from Mrs. Stanhope's house. It was very hard, poor Laura tearfully meditated, being called upon almost daily and hourly to bear the covert sneers and scoffs of one she felt to be her moral inferior. How a pair of manly blue eyes that she had once known and loved to gaze upon, would have flashed with indignation in the old days of courtship, had she told that brave lover of hers any story of injustice and insolence like that which she could now tell.

"Oh, let me bid good bye to all hopeless longings," the girl at length murmured. "He cannot know—he is far, far away—he has, perhaps, forgot——"

She somehow could not tell herself that he had forgotten her. And so she sat in her little chamber, and dreamed that he loved her still very dearly, and that they would one day meet.

Again there came a knock at the door. This time a servant said, "Miss Cornelia wishes, Miss Lyon, that you will please come down stairs and arrange her hair for the opera this evening."

Five minutes later Laura stood meekly behind her cousin's chair, arranging Cornelia's glossy tresses as somehow only her nimble fingers could arrange them. This work performed, in countless minor details of her toilet, Cornelia did not hesitate unblushingly to ask Laura's taste and assistance.

"You really would make a capital maid," Miss Stanhope remarked, as she surveyed her costume in an opposite mirror, being now thoroughly dressed for the opera. "Maria," glancing toward her French femme de chambre, "will have to look out for her laurels. Here, Laura, just carry my white merino cloak down stairs, won't you, while I follow! I want you to put out the folds of my dress when I reach the dining-room, so that those flounces may not look tumbled as I receive Viscount Ellery."

"Certainly," Laura said, receiving the cloak which her cousin offered.

Miss Stanhope and her cousin had been in the dining-room about five minutes, when the former glanced impatiently toward a clock on the mantel, exclaiming, "It is certainly very odd that Lord Ellery doesn't make his appearance. He ought undoubtedly to be here by five minutes to eight o'clock, besides "Faust" is my favorite opera and I don't want to miss a note of it. Mamma"—to her mother who had just entered—"isn't it strange that Lord Ellery is so late."

Just as Cornelia finished speaking a double knock sounded at the front door.

"That is he!" exclaimed the young lady. "I am so glad." Then, after about three minutes had elapsed, and the knock had again sounded, "what is the reason, mama, that our door is not better attended to? The idea of Lord Ellery being obliged to knock twice! It is perfectly scandalous."

"I sent Robert on an errand just after dinner," Mrs. Stanhope began, and ——"

"Oh, of course," snapped Miss Cornelia; then turning sharply toward her cousin, "Laura, go to the door."

But Laura Lyon stood as still as a statue.

"Do you hear me, Laura?" exclaimed Miss Stanhope.

"Perfectly," was the response.

"I told you to go the door."

"I know it."

"You mean to disobey me, I suppose, you impertinent creature."

"Cornelia!" interposed her mother's pleading voice.

"Once again, Laura Lyon, I order you to answer the knock."

"Is my position in this house no better, Cornelia, than that of a servant?"

Laura spoke the words in tones which a faint, almost perceptible, quiver shook; otherwise her demeanor was perfectly calm.

"No," was the unhesitating answer. "You are merely a menial—nothing more."

"Very well; in that case I obey orders."

She left the room with a steady step, though her wounded heart was beating passionately, rebelliously, in her bosom. With a steady hand, too, she unfastened the hall door. A gentleman was standing outside.

"Mrs. and Miss Stanhope at home?" he asked politely. And his voice made poor Laura's heart beat quicker than ever.

"Ernest," she could not help muring, "can it be you?"

"Laura!" The gentleman had caught her hands in both of his, and was gazing eagerly upon her face. "Oh, Laura," he went on, in tremulous tones, "what a miracle is this? I have sought you ever since my return from India, but to no purpose. At the house where you formerly lived they knew nothing of you. And now to find you here, in Cornelia Stanhope's house! I can scarcely believe my senses!"

"You could not have cared much for me, Ernest Bedale," poor Laura said, through her tears, "because—because you have never written me a line since—since——"

"Written you, Laura? I wrote no less than four times."

"Then the letters were miscarried, Ernest, for I never ——"

"For heaven's sake, Lord Ellery, what is the meaning of all this? I was not aware that you knew my cousin, Laura Lyon," Cornelia Stanhope spoke standing on the trheshold of the dining-room door, her face a picture of consternation.

Laura was not a bit awed by her cousin just then.

"Ellery!" she exclaimed, turning toward her old lover. "What does this mean, Ernest? Your name——"

"Bedale just the same, darling, as the family name; but Ellery is my title. The recent death of my unmarried uncle suddenly made my father a Marquis, and me consequently a Viscount. Riches came to us, also, unexpectedly at the same time and by the same incident."

"And so Cornelia's grand Viscount Ellery was all the while my own dear Earnest?" Laura said, quite oblivious of her cousin's presence.

"Yes, darling," Lord Ellery said; and I am sure that your cousin Cornelia will congratulate me on having found my long-lost heart."

Did Cornelia Stanhope congratulate her cousin? She was obliged to do so at Laura's and the Viscount's wedding a month later. But there are some smiles that mean frowns—some blessings that mask curses.

Narrow Escape of the President and Congress from Drowning.

When writing, the other day, of the recent Presidential-Congressional excursion down the Potomac, I was not aware how narrowly that pleasant and jovial party escaped the jaws of Death; and as no other correspondent appears to know of it I will tell you now. It all came out during the examination of a naval officer before one of the House Committees, and can be relied on. It seems then, that as the excursion boat steamed down the river, a large steamer hove in sight ahead. As they approached each other the Captain of the excursion boat pulled the bell leading to the engine-room once, and straightway the engineer opened the whistle-valve. The long drawn out whistle was a signal to the other steamer that both vessels must steer to the starboard—to the right—and so pass each other with a wide berth between them. At this moment a certain member of Congress, thinking he would have a "lark," scrambled to the bell-pull and jerked it twice. The steam-whistle responded with two shrill screams. This meant that both vessels should steer to the port side. As he did so the naval officer grappled the member of Congress and threw him down, thinking, no doubt, he was a madman or worse, and shouted to the Captain. But the mischief was done. The vessels were close to one another, and further signals would only be waste of time. The Captain dashed down to the wheel-house, threw the helm "hard-a-port," and the large steamer just missed running down the excursion steamboat—with the President, Cabinet, Judges, Congress and most of our other magnates, with their families, to the number of nine hundred souls—by some twenty feet! The presence of mind of the naval officer and the Captain of the boat was all that saved the party from a terrible death. I wish I could give the name of the Congressman who was the author of this great peril. If it were known I imagine he would never come to Congress again. It is only charity to suppose him to have been intoxicated.—Cor. Sacramento Union.

PEARLS IN THE GULF OF CALIFORNIA. There are fine pearl fisheries in the Gulf of California. The Commercial Herald says of them: "The Mexican revenue returns for 1869 show that the catch of pearl and pearl-shell along the gulf coast granted to the Lower California Co., amounted last year to the sum of $78,000. This is the value, as returned on the estimates made by the divers and speculators on the spot, but is clearly very short of the actual market value, which was probably four or five times the amount specified, and it is certain that not more than fifty per cent. of the whole catch is ever reported to the Government. The busines is carried on in a slipshod, haphazard manner, which only excites astonishment that any returns at all are given. We have good reason to believe that the real value of the catch for 1869 was in the neighborhood of $300,000. But the business is attended with so many difficulties and obstacles that Americans soon get discouraged and abandon it. The divers are all Yaki Indians, in whom no confidence can be placed. They will contract to dive, but insist on a considerale advance, either in money or goods. After the advance has been made the unlucky employer often finds himself some bright morning minus his divers, and is then compelled to go over the whole ground with a fresh set, only to be treated in like manner by the new comers. If well fed and well treated—things which they are perfect strangers to—they regard their employer as little better than a simpleton, laugh at his easy trust in human nature, and take themseves off without delay. It frequently happens that Indians who are not divers offer themselves in that capacity, requiring the advance, and as the contractor cannot know the truth, he is often duped. The real divers know their value, and take every possible advantage. Under these and other difficulties of a like nature, it is not singular that the pearl-fishery of this coast has not attracted a larger share of attention; but if conducted with system, and supported by the exercise of proper authority, it would prove most lucrative."

THE TOWER OF BABEL.—A writer describes the present appearance of the place where languages got mixed: After a ride of nine miles, we were at the foot of Bier-Nimrod. Our horses' feet were trampling upon the remains of bricks which showed here and there through the accumulated dust of ages. Before our eyes uprose a great mound of earth, barren and bare. This was Bier-Nimrod, the ruins of the Tower of Babel, by which the first builders of the earth had hoped to scale high heaven. Here, also, it was that Nebuchadnezzar built, for bricks bearing his name have been found in the ruins. At the top of the mound a great mass of brickwork pierces the accumulated soil. With your finger you touch the very bricks—large, square shaped and massive—that were thoroughly burned, the very mortar, now hard as granite, handled more than 4,000 years ago, by earth's impious people. From the summit of the mound, far away over the plain, we see glistening the gilded dome of a mosque, reflecting the bright rays of the morning sun. This was the tomb of the holy Ali. To pray before this at some period of his life; to kiss the sacred dust of the earth around there at some time or other; to bend his body and count his beads, is the daily desire of every devout Mohammedan.

BAYARRD TAYLOR, in a letter to the Tribune, from Omaha, writes: The amount of business already transacted by the Union Pacific Railroad is astonishing. The daily train of from ten to fifteen cars transfers from 400 to 500 passengers to the four roads across the river, and the departures westward are fully equal in number. It will soon be necessary to dispatch two express trains daily to San Francisco. All the quarters of the world are already represented here. Trunks with Japanese, Chinese and Australian marks are piled on the platform beside those of England and France. But this is the mere beginning—the first little rill of circumnundane travel which in five years more will be a full, permanent stream.

TWENTY-ONE thousand emigrants, mainly Irish, left Liverpool in May, nine-tenths of them for New York.

The Coming Issue.

Upon no question was the Democratic party ever more united than that of opposition to debauching their organization by a wild huht after negroes. Believing, as the Democrats do, that it is unsafe to trust the negroes with the ballot; believing, as they do, that the right was conferred upon them by force, fraud and deception, and against the will of a large proportion of the people, the party is closing up its ranks and preparing to wrest from that organization which inflicts this outrage and wrong upon the white men of the country. To do this they will appeal to white men only. Their interests are at stake in this contest. They settled this nation. They felled the trees, planted the corn, erected the log-cabins, the school houses, the churches, projected the political structure, fought the war of the Revolution, framed the Constitution and launched the nation on its career of unexampled development and prosperity. This was the work of white men, and now, when the Radical party are attempting to change the form of government by means of negro votes, the Democracy raise the old banner of white suffrage and summon that race to the rescue. And that summons will be obeyed with alacrity and enthusiasm. In this city and State the party is a unit in favor of keeping the organization on a white basis. There is not enough dissent to ruffle the surface. All the old men who have carried the flag of the party in a hundred fights are sound on this question, and the young men will not agree to be put upon an equality with negroes in workshops, in manufactories, in counting houses and all other places. This is the position of the party in this locality. Across the river the gallant Democracy of New Jersey have taken the same stand. In alluding to the issue, the Newark Journal says, "the Democratic party of New Jersey is the white man's party; the Administration party is the negro party, known of all men as such, and whatever the politicians of New York may do, the Democrats of New Jersey have hoisted their colors and will stand by them. The Republicans are welcome to the negro votes; the Democratic party can do better without them, and we propose to make the political atmosphere red-hot this fall against the party that has forced the Fifteenth Amendment fraud and negro voters upon us contrary to the wishes of the people." This is the voice of the Democracy of New Jersey, heard through one of their most spirited and reliable organs. It is plain, to the point, and easily understood. The negro vote will not be an element in the contest so far as the Democracy is concerned. They will not put men on the ticket to propitiate the "new citizens," or recognize them in any way in their conversations. The old path of duty will be followed, the intelligence of the white masses appealed to, honest men nominated for all positions, and the column pushed on by reason, facts and arguments, showing the inevitable result of allowing the Radical party to remain in power, either in the nation or the State. And this will be the action of the party in all portions of the Union. Connectcut was redeemed after the proclamation of the Fifteenth Amendment, and in all sections of the West the white man's ticket has been successful in the late elections. Thus instructed, the Democratic party has hoisted its banner for the coming struggle, drawn the sword and thrown away the scabbard,

We want no cowards in this fight,
For they'll our colors fly.
We want brave, honest-hearted men,
Men not afraid to die.

A CONVERTED FEEJEE ISLANDER.—They permit polygamy in Feejee, and the missionaries there are are trying to induce the natives to give it up. A short time ago one of the missionaries made a convert, and this convert swore a solemn oath that he would forsake polygamy forever. He had twenty-seven wives—this convert had—and so he went right home and got up the biggest free lunch that was ever heard of in that part of the Pacific Ocean. When his relations and friends and the missionaries came to partake of the delicacies of the season from his festive board, this convert drew aside a curtain and there were twenty-six of his wives impaled on revolving spits, all done nice and brown, and trimmed with parsley and slices of beets and fanciful designs in white paper. The missionaries went home and sent their regrets, but all the Feejeeans turned in, and it is estimated that those twenty-six women were effectually divorced from that Pagan in a space of time that would make a Chicago Judge turn yellow with envy. As a feed it was successful, but what that convert wants to know is, why those missionaries refuse to permit him to come in and teach a Sunday School class? He feels hurt at their cold indifference.—N. Y. World.

A CALIFORNIA FISH STORY.—From an actual resident of Lake county, and by the way, a disciple of Isaak Walton, we learn that there are three lakes, known as the Blue Lakes, situated on the road from Upper Clear Lake to Ukiah, in Mendocino county. This, of itself, is nothing improbable; but these lakes are inhabited not by a serpent, but by fish, and fish of immense size. Many persons living in the vicinity of these lakes have frequently seen them, and they are represented as being from ten to fifteen feet in length. Mr. James Parrish, of Lakeport, is at present engaged in preparing tackle for the purpose of trying to capture one or more of these scaly monsters. When it is known that these lakes are situated in a mountainous country, and have no communication whatever with any other body of water, the fact of their being inhabited by such large fish is quite remarkable. One of the above lakes has been sounded to the depth of three hundred and fifty feet, and no bottom found. People that don't believe this fish story can have all doubts removed by a trip to Clear Lake. They won't regret it.—Vallejo Chronicle.

REMEDY FOR POISONS.—If any poison is swallowed, drink instantly a half a glass of cool water, with a heaping teaspoonful of common salt and ground mustard stirred into it. This vomits as soon as it reaches the stomach. But for fear some of the poison may remain, swallow the white of one or two eggs, or drink a cup of hot coffee—these two being antidotes for a greater number of poisons than any other dozen of articles known, with the advantage of their being always on hand; if not, a pint of sweet oil, lamp oil, drippings, melted butter or lard, are good substitutes, especially if they vomit quickly.

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.
OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, June 11th, 1870.

SECOND CROP.—The clover in the Court House yard is now being cut for hay. This is the second crop this season.

S. F. P. M.—The Senate has confirmed the appointment of N. B. Stone, as Postmaster of San Francisco.

EIGHT HOURS TRIUMPHANT.—The Eight-hour system has been adopted in the New York puplic parks.

NEVADA STATE CAPITOL.—The corner-stone of the new Capitol of Nevada was laid at Carson on Thursday with Masonic ceremonies.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS ACCORDED.—The National Typographical Union has elected a woman as Secretary of that organization for the current year.

COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION.—Theodore Snell has been appointed Commissioner of Immigration. Sam. Brannan and J. J. Marks are his sureties.

VALLEJO.—The Senate has passed a bill making Vallejo a Port of Delivery within the Collection District of San Francisco, and authorizing the appointment of a Surveyor of Customs.

NEW WHEAT.—New wheat is coming into market quite freely, the harvest having fairly commenced. The quality generally is said to be excellent. The price for new ranges for $1 50, and for old, 55c to 60c per 100lbs.

FIRST WHEAT IN MARKET.—F. S. Freeman, of Woodland, shipped 25 tons of new wheat from this place the fore-part of this week. It was the first of the new crop to reach San Francisco.

OREGON U. S. SENATOR.—It is thought that the result of the Oregon election will secure to that sterling Democrat, Hon. G. W. Nesmith, a seat in the U. S. Senate as successor to Senator Williams.

NEW YORK—OFFICIAL VOTE.—The official returns from every county in New York State give the Democratic candidate for Chief Justice (Church) 87,897 majority, out of a total vote of 391,473.

UNFORTUNATE.—The Boston excursionists had their pockets picked at Calistoga. The Reporter suggests that the "picking" was done by some shrewd Yankee who followed them from "the hub."

OREGON.—The latest news from Oregon (in Friday's Union) says the Democrats have carried the election by from 400 to 500 on the State ticket, and have secured a majority of from ten to fourteen in the Legislature.

SOUTHERN COAST RAILROAD.—According to the San Luis Obispo Tribune, surveyors have been for some weeks examining to ascertain the proper place to cross the mountains. No decision has yet been arrived at.

AN AWFUL LEAP.—The papers have it that one Frank Thorne is to leap from the new suspension bridge at Niagara Falls into the river, a distance of 190 feet, on the 13th of August, and is to be paid $10,000 for the job.

CAN'T TAKE IT WITH HIM.—Vanderbilt is said to be distributing his property to his heirs. After the manner of John Jacob Astor, he has lately transferred $5,000,000 to one of his children for the nominal consideration of $1.

AMNESTY.—The telegraph tells us that if a general amnesty bill is passed such men as J. C. Breckenridge will be sent to the U. S. Senate. This alone will be sufficient to prevent the passage of such a bill. "Let us have peace!"

SENATOR SPRAGUE'S OPINION. — Senator Sprague thinks, says a Washington correspondent, that the effect of negro voting in Rhode Island will ultimately be to make it a Democratic State by the irritation it naturally creates among the white workingmen.

RESIGNATION OF PRESIDENT RICE.—President Rice, of the California Pacific Railroad, having resigned on account of ill health, the Board of Directors met at San Francisco on Wenesday last, and filled the vacancy by the choice of J. P. Jackson, Esq. We regret to learn that poor health on the part of Mr. Rice has brought about the above change.

THE RESULT.—The special election in San Francisco, on the question of granting a subsidy of $1,000,000 to the Southern Pacific Railroad, resulted in the defeat of the proposition. The question turned on employing Chinese or white men on the railroad, and as nothing satisfactory could be learned from the railroad folks the working men very consistently voted against granting the subsidy.

CALIFORNIA BEET SUGAR. — The Oakland Transcript says the new factory at Alvarado for the manufacture of sugar from California beets will go into active operation about the first of August, when the beet crop comes in. Machinery capable of working fifty tons per day is now in progress of erection at the Union Foundry, at San Francisco, and will be placed in the factory as soon as completed.

PACIFIC METHODIST COLLEGE. — The Santa Rosa Democrat says that Hon. R. C. Haile, Col. Chas. Ramsey, and Revs. O. P. Fitzgerald, W. R. Gober and George Sims, the committee on the location of the Pacific Methodist College, paid that town a visit on Tuesday last, and after a thorough examination and consideration of the inducements offered, resolved to locate the college permanently at Santa Rosa. Work is to be commenced immediately on the new buildings.

VERMONT OPPOSED TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—Recently, in Vermont, an experiment was tried to see how the women themselves stood on the question. The Royalton Election District was canvassed with the following result:

Number of women in the district	82
In favor of suffrage	14
Opposed to suffrage	53
Having no choice	14
Not found at home	1

This shows that the women of Royalton do not desire to unsex themselves by putting on the toggery of masculinity, but are content with the position assigned them by nature.

A BRAINLESS CONGRESS.—Under this head, Don Piatt, in a late letter to the Cincinnati Commercial pays the following compliment to the Representatives of the South as they were before the war. He shows the average Yankee ignorance about those he calls the "poor whites," but his statements on the other points are indisputable: "The South for a long term of years enjoyed a higher order of legislative talent from a limited condition of suffrage. The negroes did not vote nor did the poor whites, save as their masters dictated. It was not Democratic, but it was decent. We broke up that system, and excluding the brain by law, admitted the skulls. No man questions the result. Instead of gentlemen we have low fellows; and in place of a pride that lifted the representatives above thefts, we have rogues openly in the market."

OREGON DEMOCRATIC.

The people of Oregon held an election on the 8th instant, at which, the telegraph admits, the Democrats were successful, electing the Governor and State ticket, Congressman and a majority of ten to fourteen Legislators, which will insure a Democrat also for the United States Senate in place of Williams. Thus State after State is placing its seal of condemnation on the so-called Fifteenth Amendment—a measure conceived in iniquity—no, an abortion effected by bayonets, and which was declared ratified without the assent of the people, nay, worse than that, in direct opposition to the expressed will of the people of several States, among which we call to mind New York, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan—to say nothing of the infamous military tyranny practised upon the Southern States, where the people are as law-abiding as in California to-day. We are not aware how many negroes there are in Oregon, but we are told they voted unmolested. The fact that the votes of the manufactured citizens were insufficient to turn the scale, but adds to the discomfiture of the Republicans. Thus far, at least in the Northern States, wherever negroes have voted the Democracy have gained more than an equal number of disgusted white voters from the Republican party, which shows that the thing works its own cure. The Sacramento Union states that its own party resorted to the most corrupt means to carry the State, citing one instance where $15,000 corruption money was expended in one county and $10,000 in another. And here we will give the Union credit for saying: "If this is true, there is no good reason for regretting the defeat of those who resorted to such corruptions." We had hoped for a larger majority than that conceded by the telegraph, four to five hundred, but to have succeeded at all, under the circumstances, is glory enough. The election was the most hotly contested of any that ever occurred in Oregon. The result shows the determination of the people to maintain a white man's government—the Democracy want no mongrelism, either Negro or Mongolian, but prefer to retain the management of public affairs in the hands of white men, to perpetuate the Government instituted by white men for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever, always according to the lowest and meanest in the land full protection and rights under the law. Connecticut has spoken, New York thundered approval, and now Oregon echoes back the joyful sound—"No mongrelism—a white man's government forever!"

THE COUNTY PRINTING.—The Mail is going back on its declaration made a short time ago that "to the victors belong the spoils," and we learn the man at the helm has for some time past been stirring up the minority member of the Board of Supervisors to annull the existing contract with this office for doing the county printing. In this week's paper he promises to "make some 'points' in regard to this affair in a future issue." Keep cool, neighbor; you haven't the ghost of a show. The Democratic party of Yolo county, with its three hundred majority, and two of the three Supervisors, doesn't propose to give its patronage to any such paper as the Mail, so you may just as well pocket your grief. We have in the Board good men and true, who know the wishes of a large majority of the people of the county, and will respect them. Besides, when the Republicans had a majority in the county, the printing was given to the organ of that party at nearly double the price now allowed this paper and for the performance of a far less amount of work. But it is unpleasant to be "out in the cold." We have been there before now, but we did not whine about it.

THE RESULT IN OREGON.—Private advices—says the Sacramento Union—received here some days ago, stated that the election was being turned upon the railway question, and that Holladay was working like a beaver in the Republican interest. It was also said that sworn statements had been made to the effect that $15,000 had been furnished in the railway interest to influence the election in Polk county, and $10,000 more in the Grand Ronde Valley. If this is true there is no good reason to regret the defeat of those who resorted to such corruptions. With all their money they fell short 500 votes. This shows a Democratic loss since 1868. But the loss may be partly accounted for from the fact that the Republican candidate for Governor is a man of considerable ability, whilst his opponent is below mediocrity in talents for public affairs. We could have wished Oregon a better choice for her Governor, but on the whole, it may well be doubted that she has sustained any injury by the defeat of schemes which depended upon corrupt influences and looked to the fastening upon her of a railway master, which in the end might have turned out as gross an evil as the one which national, State and municipal charity has bequeathed to California.

AN UNFAITHFUL CONGRESS.—The Albany Evening Journal, the leading organ of the Republicans of New York, says: "Congress has blundered too long already, and that unity of action is only possible under the policy of a moderative protective tariff and mild income law, and the abrogation of all taxes upon business and legacies. The power of the high tariff men is broken. If the Republican party is not united upon these issues, it will enter the fall campaign at a great disadvantage, demoralized among ourselves, and the popular vote against us. There is but little probability that even this compromise of the warring elements will be adopted. We shall not get even a moderate protective tariff or a mild income law. If we did, they would not satisfy the people. They want a low revenue tariff, and the repeal of the income tax altogether. In every rank in private life, the action of Congress is censured bitterly, and a desire expressed that it should speedily adjourn, never to meet again, if it cannot conform to the popular demands upon the tariff and financial questions. There is a chance of electing a better Congress the coming autumn.

THE STATES TO BE ABOLISHED. — Parson Brownlow writes:

"Had I my way, I would so reconstruct the Government of the United States as to form a strong Central Government here in the District of Columbia, and organize the States as so many colonial corporations, as absolutely dependent upon and subject to the will of the Central power at Washington as are counties to States. Thus I would wipe out and extirpate the whole theory and pretence of State rights and State sovereignty, to which we are mainly indebted for the late rebellion. While I speak only for myself, I believe that Congress and the country are looking in the same direction. W. G. BROWNLOW, WASHINGTON, April 25, 1870."

HOW THE MONEY GOES.—An exchange in alluding to the passage of the Northern Pacific Railroad Bill says "the franchise is estimated in Washington to be worth now $15,000,000 cash. The holders have realized about $14,000,000 by the scheme, as it has not cost them over $1,000,000 to engineer the thing through Congress. Thus the servants of the people have traded away $15,000,000 of the nation's property for $1,000,000, and put that in their own pockets. Shameless, brazen-faced thieves." We believe the case has been rather under stated. The sum above mentioned could be readily obtained as a bonus for the corporative privileges conferred. The immense tracts of land granted will net five times as much. This sum the people pay for what is really their own property.—Oakland Transcript.

TEXT BOOKS.—The action of the San Francisco Board of Education against the too frequent changes in text books is highly commendable. This matter ought to be taken in hand all over the State. It is and long has been a cruel extortion upon parents, more particularly among the poorer classes. Interested parties, authors, booksellers and teachers are believed to have been at the bottom of the rapid changes made in the books used. The expense involved is considerable, making the tax on many families quite an oppression, while the effect is injurious to the children. Therefore a little reform movement in the direction named is greatly needed and will be of vast benefit.—Sonoma Democrat.

San Francisco Correspondence.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.

WOODWARD'S GARDENS.

An immense crowd flocks daily to this delightful resort, the major portion of which are attracted by the new celebrity, Admiral Dot, who is, indeed, worth seeing. He is a native of San Francisco, and only 12 years of age, but has the appearance of a diminutive specimen of four. On the upper floor of the Museum we found him seated on a raised platform, dressed in a becoming dark blue military suit, coolly surveying the crowd and answering any question addressed to him with composed dignity.

THE BOSTONIANS

Created quite a sensation, and by six o'clock of the evening of their arrival, Market street, from Sixth to Montgomery, was so densely crowded as to make it difficult for pedestrians to pass. The old, the young and the middle-aged robbed themselves of sleep till a late hour to indulge their propensity for sight-seeing. As the cars came rushing up, and stopped in front of the Grand Hotel, one aged grandma gazed curiously at the distinguished visitors till the last one had alighted. Then with an air of disappointment, she turned to a friend exclaiming, "Why, good gracious me, 'taint nothing but keers and folks after all!" The Palace Cars are well worthy the cognomen, and are justly to be ranked with the wonderful inventions of the age.

A WOULD BE SUICIDE.

Mrs. Schultz, who was rescued from a watery grave several weeks since, again attempted to commit suicide by drinking a large quantity of landanum; but her murderous design was frustrated by the speedy and effective use of a stomach pump. With a life of seeming gaity around us, it would be difficult to sum up the amount of real and fancied unhappiness of the married couples of this city. Walking down Howard street, a few mornings since, we observed a well-dressed woman emerge from a handsome residence, draw a paper from her pocket on which she gazed for awhile intently. Folding the paper she attempted to replace it in her pocket, but in doing so she let it fall to the pavement. Without discovering her loss she walked on at a too rapid pace for us to overtake her. I send you a synopsis of what the missive contains, witholding the names attached to the document: "A Stray Leaf—I have crossed the trackless ocean, and left those dear by the ties of blood, far, far behind. The joys and fond delights of girlhood cheered me not on—I came, but like many other acts since 1864 it was merely compulsory, I had accepted a strange destiny and it was my lot to work it out. Oh! those long years of trial. It is a sad fate for a young girl in the bloom of girlish innocence, to give her hand in marriage to one who does not nor can ever appreciate her. How I am scoffed, ridiculed and jeered at, till my head reels and my brain seems as if it was on fire. I look behind—there is not one flower that I have crushed since the commemoration of that memorable event to send forth to me its fragrance. I am languishing and growing prematurely old for that sympathy, those expressions of love, which I have hoped, yea, prayed for in vain. I love blindly, madly, and my heart has been made to bleed at many pores. I have chosen in the marriage relation unwisely. God pity and help me! From the charred mass of withered hopes and blighted aspirations may my thoughts take a nobler turn, and in spite of obstacles prove in the future that I have learned to be something more than an unhappy wife who finds her constant and unceasing efforts to please her husband perfectly unavailing."

THE SEVENTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Of St. Mary's College, at Platt's Hall, last Thursday evening, was a grand success. The brass band, composed of boys ranging from 12 to 16, surpassed anything we had ever imagined. The essays were well written, and finely delivered, and met with thundering applause from the delighted audience. MARION.

"CALIFORNIA PRESS ASSOCIATION." — It seems that the Associated Press, which means the Alta, Bulletin, Call and Union, are no longer to have a monopoly of the overland dispatches. The Union Telegraph have acted a most disgraceful part towards the other papers of the State, and we are gratified to see that they are to be brought to grief. The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company have just completed a line of double wires from San Francisco to Omaha and connecting there with all the principal lines in the United States. This line has the benefit of the snow sheds of the railroad, and will, in consequence, be subjected to much fewer interruptions from storms. The Company have made arrangements to gather all the live news current in America and Europe, and have it transmitted daily to a new association of journals which has just been organized for the purpose. The following are the officers of the California Press Association:

President—Charles de Young, San Francisco Chronicle.

Vice President—John Scott, Oakland Transcript.

Secretary—J. S. Sickler, Sacramento Record.

Treasurer—Frederick Hess, German Democrat.

Directors—Philip Roach, San Francisco Examiner; A. S. Smith, Marysville Standard; N. M. Orr, Stockton Independent; William Gagan, Oakland News; Chas. de Young, ex-officio.

Merchants and business men generally will find it greatly to their advantage to patronize the new line.—Examiner.

MYNHEER PAUL DIETRICH, of Milwaukee, feeling his earthly tabernacle stored with troubles, to be expelled, decided after full enquiry and investigation, to employ Ayer's Pills. In his haste to purify his Dutch stomach, he mistook the directions, 1 to 7, and swallowed 27 to a dose. This created, of course, an ap-paul-ing internal rebellion. But Paul went through the fight like a hero, and came off victor at last, with a renovated system, which he proudly exhibits as proof of the wisdom of his choice. He advises everybody to take Doctor Ayer's Pills, but kindly advises his friends who are ambitious of following his example, to "pe sure and take der right botion."—Minnesota Telegraph.

Business men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a condition are realized in extreme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it may be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids, from the same cause; but by using Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and bouyancy of health.

QUARTERLY REPORT

Of the Auditor and Treasurer of Yolo County, for the Quarter ending May 31, 1870.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, May 31st, 1870.

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Yolo County:

GENTLEMEN—In pursuance of the provisions of law we herewith present to your honorable body a report of the transactions in the County Finances for the three months ending with May 31st, 1870, showing the Receipts and disbursements of the several funds, the sources of revenue from which the receipts are derived, and the balances of the funds at the close of the quarter. Also, a statement of the amount of the Floating Debt of the County at this time, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Justice's Summons.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, County of Yolo, In Justice's Court, Putah township, JAMES ONEAL, Justice of the Peace. G. H. Swing'e, Plaintiff, vs. James Pruny Cummins.

The People of the State of California send greeting: JAMES PRUNY CUMMINS, you are hereby summoned to appear before me at my office, in the Township of Putah in the County of Yolo and State of California in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, and answer the complaint in said action, on file in my office within fifteen days exclusive of the day of service on you of this summons. The said action is brought to recover judgment for the sum of forty-eight dollars alleged to be due and owing from you to the said plaintiff for the keeping of one brown mare colt, at your request; all of which is set forth in complaint on file. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will take judgment for the amount demanded.

Given under my hand, this 6th day of June, 1870. JAMES ONEAL, Justice of the Peace.

Ordered that the above summons be published in the YOLO DEMOCRAT once a week for two successive weeks. JAMES ONEAL, J. P. je11-2t

PAIN KILLER
PROP.
PERRY DAVIS & SON PROVIDENCE R. I.
1840 1870

The great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a Pain Killer its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

Thirty years is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the Pain Killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle. Directions accompany each bottle. je11-1m

Town and County Matters.

[CORRESPONDENCE for this department is invited from all parts of the County.]

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment on Monday, June 6th, all the Supervisors present, and proceeded to business.

The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

The resignation of P. S. Tutt, as Justice of the Peace of East Cottonwood, was tendered to the Board, accepted and placed on file.

Monday, the first day of August next, was set as the time for hearing in the matter of locating a road from Merritt's farm east, former proceedings being declared irregular.

H. W. Atwell was granted use of maps to assist him in compiling a Directory of the county.

Proposition of J. S. Underhill to furnish a map of Knight's Landing for the use of County Assessor was accepted. Map to be furnished within one week.

On petition of J. W. Snowball, Huston and Goldman and fourteen others, H. M. Hoyt was appointed Justice of the Peace at Knight's Landing to fill vacancy caused by failure of said H. M. Hoyt to qualify within the time required by law.

Supervisor Swingle was appointed, with discretionary power, to confer with the Supervisors of Solano county in reference to replanking the bridge across Putah Creek, said bridge being on the line between the two counties.

L. P. Taylor, Road Master of Buckeye District, was empowered to employ the County Surveyor and any other needed assistance to properly locate the road from Knight's Landing to Wolfskill's, on Putah Creek.

Notice ordered published for proposals to construct a bridge across Bird's Creek on the Dunnigan road. See advertisement.

In pursuance of a petition of many citizens of Lisbon School District, together with the recommendation of R. R. Darby, County Superintendent of Schools, the boundaries of said district were changed so as to read as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of the ranch known as Daniel Lewis', and including the territory between that point and the southeast corner of J. G. Saunders, commencing at a point at the southeast corner of land of J. G. Saunders on the west bank of the Sacramento River, running thence down the river to the southeast corner of land of L. Trumpler, called the Dan Lewis place, on the bank of said river; thence due west to the centre of the canal in the tules; thence northerly by the centre of said canal to a point due west from the point of commencement; thence due east to the place of beginning.

County Auditor ordered to draw his warrant on Hospital Fund in favor of Nathan Brothers for the sum of $90.

J. S. Curtis, C. W. Reed and J. N. Hoag were appointed Commissioners to appraise the value of a strip of land on the bank of the Sacramento River, three and a half miles below Washington, for the use of the ferry operated by Samuel Hawks.

Proposition of J. I. Underhill to furnish field notes of certain surveys for the sum of $50 was accepted.

Report of Hospital Physician for the month of May received and placed on file.

The boundaries of Woodland Prarie, Plainfield and Willow Slough School Districts were ordered changed in accordance with petition of many residents and recommendation of County Superintendent.

Notice ordered published that proposals will be received by the Board for raising grade of road west of Knight's Landing [see advertisement] on Tuesday, July 5th, at two o'clock.

Matter of building walls for protection of jail windows postponed till July term, when repairing Court House will also be considered.

The road running west past Coil's and Beamer's was ordered established in accordance with viewers' report, and J. A. Douglas paid $100 gold coin claimed as damages.

The Board adjourned to meet on the first Monday of July next.

OUTRAGE.—Charles Alexander, who resides in Cache Creek Canyon, was the victim, a few days ago, of a most brutal outrage. While sleeping near a hay stack, on the ranch of a neighbor, he was attacked by some villain and so severely wounded that his life is almost despaired of. The attack was made in the night, and no clue to the guilty parties has yet been obtained. The weapon used in the assault is supposed to have been a heavy piece of fencing lumber, and the blows inflicted fractured Alexander's skull. Dr. Bynum is attending on the unfortunate man. Whatever may have been the motive, none but a most cowardly demon in human shape could have been guilty of the outrage, and we sincerely hope that the officers of the law may be fortunate enough to detect the villain and bring him to justice.

VEILED MYSTERY.—The following is a verbatim copy of an advertisement which appeared in the Sacramento Union of Thursday last. As it evidently concerns some one in our midst we give it entire, wondering what it means:

WOODLAND—RECEIVED BOTH:—Anxiety almost unbearable, but thought silence was safest, and am pleased that you approve. What you tell me of yourself is just what I had feared. I knew on the Wednesday, that it would be so. You know what I feel. "Sorrow" is no word. What would I not give to see you? Such comfort to be together now. Write to me promptly. Let me write, for I dare not say more here. Still there is HOPE.

"THE WESTERN SHORE GAZETTEER AND COMMERCIAL DIRECTORY FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA."—We have printed circulars for Messrs. Sprague & Atwell, who have commenced the compilation of the above work. Judging from its title, we should say it cannot fail to be one of great value, especially to the business community. It is proposed to issue one volume for each county in the State, commencing with Yolo. The first volume will be issued by the 1st of August, and followed up with the others as fast as the data can be gathered by competent canvassers, who will also solicit subscribers. Read the circular folded in this paper.

CACHEVILLE MILL.—We are pleased to learn that the flouring mills at Cacheville have passed into the hands of Mr. E. H. Eastham, late of Lnight's Landing, under whose management the flour from the latter place obtained so wide a reputation, being considered equal to the best in the State. The Cacheville mills are being overhauled and repaired, and a steam engine added for use when the water fails. Another run of stones will also be put in, making three in all. It will be in full blast in a few days.

PHOENIX AND HOME.—A new advertisement of this Company appeared in our last received too late for mention. It is too well known to require any puffing, but we confidently recommend it as perfectly reliable to all who wish to insure, which, of course, every one should do as a matter of common prudence. Geo. D. Fiske is the agent for Woodland and vicinity.

HESPERIAN COLLEGE.—We have been favored with the eighth annual catalogue of the officers, faculty and students of Hesperian College, which we are pleased to know is in a flourishing condition. The next term commences Monday, August 22d, and we trust it will receive considerable additions to its already large number of students.

WHO WANTS A NEW SEWING MACHINE? Persons in want of a sewing machine can be accommodated with either the Wheeler & Wilson, Florence, New Weed, Howe or the Elliptic, on reasonable terms, at agents' prices, by applying to N. Elliott. All these are first-class machines.

EL DORADO STABLES.—E. R. Swain, late Assessor, has purchased a half interest in the El Dorado Livery Stables of this place.

FIRE MEETING.—Another meeting of the citizens was held at the Court House on Wednesday evening last to further consider the propriety of organizing a Fire Department in Woodland. A Committee of Arrangements was appointed with power to procure the necessary apparatus, etc. The Committee is composed of the following citizens: Martin Steinmetz, Henry Perry and J. D. Lawson. The Committee, we are glad to learn, mean business, and will do all in their power to perfect the organization at once. Citizens interested should respond liberally to assist in the good work.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.—A meeting of our citizens is called on Monday evening to make arrangements for celebrating on the coming Fourth of July. This is as it should be. A subscription paper to defray expenses has been started, and has been liberally signed by those to whom it has been presented. We hope to see a full turn out on Monday evening. Let us have an old-fashioned time on Independence Day. Posters are out calling the meeting to make arrangements.

CORRECTION.—In our last week's issue an item charged Lorenzo and George Tabor with stealing hogs. Instead of stealing, read "shooting." The defendants were acquitted. If outsiders knew the difficulties newspaper men labor under in obtaining items of news, they would not wonder that errors creep in occasionally.

STEAM THRESHER.—A machine of this kind made its appearance on our streets the other day, which is the invention of Byron Jackson, a resident of this county. It not only threshes by steam, but propels itself over any ordinary road without difficulty.

LANDS IN MARKET.—C. S. Frost has issued notices that on the 6th day of July next certain odd sections of railroad lands in Yolo county will be put upon the market.

DISGRACFUL ACT.—The other day a man so drunk he could scarcely stand was shamefully beaten on our streets. Should think the drunk was bad enough without the pounding.

FORNEY'S RASCALITIES. — More of Forney's rascalities are coming out, though they of course attract little attention, as his character was well fixed in Pennsylvania long before he became a shining light of Radicalism. Before the Bullock Investigation Committee, both he and his mail clerk testified under oath as to the circulation of the Chronicle, Forney swearing about 8,000 better than his clerk. And here is a most interesting letter recently addressed to him by General W. Patton, a former associate:

"Soon after you were elected Clerk of the House of Representatives Mr. Morrison, of the firm of W. M. Morrison & Co., booksellers, on Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington city, said to me one day: 'General Patton, you and Colonel Forney seem to be on intimate terms, and I want you to do me the favor to negotiate with him to give us the contract for supplying members of Congress with the books to which they are entitled. As he will probably accept a bonus for it, you may tell him I will give him $5,000 for it.' I said I would do it with pleasure. I informed you of his request, and the amount of bonus offered, but you said he must do better than that—that you must have $10,000 for it. Said I, 'Colonel, that seems to be piling it up rather steep, and I doubt whether they can afford to give it.' 'Well,' you said, 'I don't care whether they can or not. There are other parties competing for it, and I can get it.' I reported to Mr. Morrison what you said, and he said the bonus was larger than he expected to pay, but that he would risk it. You gave them the contract, and they gave you the $10,000 in cash. Now, Colonel, as the only injunction of secrecy imposed on me in this matter was not to let P. Barry Hayes, your chief clerk, know anything about it (this was probably to keep him from desiring a portion of the spoils), and as he has gone to that 'bourne from whence no traveller returns,' I do not, therefore, consider this disclosure a breach of confidence."

Religious Services.

CATHOLIC SERVICES will be held on the 4th Sunday of every month, at the Court House, until further notice. Rev. Father Kelly, pastor.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An exchange says: "The surprising curative efficacy of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, in a great variety of chronic diseases, especially those which prove obstinate, and incurable by ordinary treatment, cannot be explained. Nature, aided by art, has here provided a rare combination of medicinal properties, wisely adapted to the cure of diseases common to all mankind."

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even when taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specially for that purpose.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

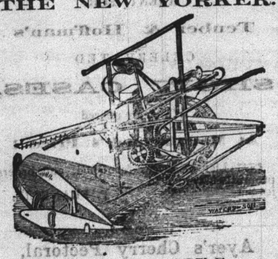
THE NEW YORKER.



SELF-RAKING
REAPER AND MOWER
— AND —
SELF-RAKING REAPER.

Reasons Why

YOU SHOULD USE THIS MACHINE:

First.

No man can rake by hand with the perfection that the NEW YORKER does.

Second.

The Rake is entirely under the control of the Driver, and will rake any size of gavel desired.

Third.

The Machine is Light, requiring but two Horses, and saves extra draft and the expense of one man.

Fourth.

The New Yorker has no superior as a Reaper or Mower, and no equal as a self-Raker, and is warranted in every particular, and to perform well in every capacity as being built upon the only correct principle for a Self-Raker.

Fifth.

The Reaper Cuts Six Feet, the Reaper and Mower Five Feet, and never fails to give satisfaction as a Reaper, a Mower, or Self-Raker, and whenever requisite the change from Reaper to Mower is easily and rapidly effected.

Sixth.

Each Machine is set up at the Factory and worked by steam to see that all runs accurately and easy.

AS A REAPER

This Machine will Cut and Rake from Twelve to Eighteen Acres of Grain per day, and

AS A MOWER,

THE "NEW YORKER"

Cannot be excelled by even those Machines built exclusively for Mowing, and will cut from eight to twelve acres per day.

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

Believing that every man should be held personally responsible for whatever he offers to the public as an antidote for any existing evil, and that no honest man can, for the sake of gain, offer as a remedy that which may prove an injury, we shall say no more than that we believe to be strictly true, and easily proved, in relation to the merits of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup!

We have known it for many years as a valuable remedy in all Pulmonary Complaints. It has been given to a great number of persons, old and young, male and female, and it can be truly said that rarely, if ever, was known a single instance in which it has not effected a speedy cure of the most violent cold or long-seated cough; and, in case of Asthma, whooping-cough, sore throat, or any affection of the throat or lungs, we have yet to hear of the first instance in which it has not afforded entire satisfaction. We do not pretend to say that

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup

Is a remedy for "all the ills that flesh is heir to," but we do say that, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, it has been found to be a safe, pleasant, and sovereign remedy for the most violent cold, long-neglected cough, sore throat, asthma, whooping-cough, or any affection of the throat or lungs arising, as almost all such complaints do, from what is at first considered nothing but a "slight cold"—the final consequences of which need not be pointed out. Prominent, however, among the ills thus engendered, is that of Consumption, for which it is said there is no remedy, and perhaps there is not. But if

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

Which we so strongly recommend, be a remedy for such complaints as we have enumerated, what effect will it have upon that scourge of the human race, CONSUMPTION? We answer, it will be to afford its victims immediate relief! It will check the ever-accompanying cough; this done, refreshing sleep is sure to follow, and, in its train, increase of strength, a brighter eye, a more cheerful countenance—and, why not a restoration to health? CURE YOUR COLD while it is yet what you consider but a slight one, and you will have less occasion to seek a remedy for any of the countless ills so sure to follow from it when too long neglected. Cure it in your children, instead of allowing them to retire to their beds night after night with a SLIGHT COLD, from which almost every family has had sad experience; they too often rise with headache, sore throat, or fever.

A kind Providence has placed at the disposal of His intelligent creatures, all the remedies requisite for the relief of such diseases as He permits to afflict mankind. Among the gravest in this category are those of the CHEST and LUNGS. A thorough and patient investigation into the character and treatment of these affections, has resulted in the selection and approval, by the more intelligent of the present day, of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

The use of which is synonymous with speedy relief and health. Consumptives, try it! For sale by all Druggists.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

Should be resorted to on the slightest indication of a cough, cold or asthma.

THE HON. MRS. M'FLINN.

Hurrah ! for the time that is comin'
Whin the ladies shall vote the min ;
Och, won't the polls be a bloamin'.
Wid fithers and crinoline thin,
Election day thin I am thinkin'
Will be the grand day of the year,
Whin lasses an' lads will be drinkin'
Together the candidates' beer.

What's the use to wrangle wid Biddy,
About who the livin' shall make !
An' sure, if 'twill plaze her I'm riddy
To give up the hod for her sake,
An' be stayin' all day at the shanty,
To tind to domestic affairs,
A bollin' the bafe and petaties,
An' mendin' the rips an' the tares.

Thin whin election approaches,
An' the lasses are marchin' the strate
Wid big bands of music an' torches,
An' Biddy is standin' the trate,
I'll, be on the side-walk hurrahin'
For me own darlin' Biddy M'Flinn;
Wid a chile on me arms, an' drawin'
A cab with another one in.

An' whin she is makin' her spaches
Before the great min of the land
Sure thin I will lend her my braches
An' sit by her side on the sthand ;
An after she's done wid her talkin'
An' the people are cheerin' like mad,
Then off to the polls we'll be walkin'
An' votin' for Biddy, bedad.

An' whin all the votin' is over,
An' Biddy elected, shure thin,
I'll live like a pig in clover,
Wid Hon. Mrs. M'Flinn.
The shanty I'll quickly be lavin'
An livin' wid illigant taste,
Wid a horse an' shay for me drivin'
An' a naygur to wait on the baste.

It's niver a lie I am spakin',
But thrue ivery word that I say,
It's meself 'twould niver be takin'
The rights of the ladies away.
For a lassie, thinkin' it proper,
Should shoulder the mortar and brick,
Bad luck to the man that would stop her;
I'd black his two eyes pretty quick.

The way is for all to keep aisy,
An' give to their ladies their way;
They'll stip up an' vote like a daisy,
No matter what the blackguards may say.
An' thin shud they office be sakin'
Or twirlin' the pick or the shpade,
An' for us the livin' be makin'
Who cares so the livin' is made !

THE Placer County Supervisors have voted themselves $1,500 each, for services rendered in selling the Central Pacific Railroad stock of the county.

H. CRAMER, of Tuolumne county, has patented a new invention in the shape of a very ingeniously contrived washing machine, which heats its own water, washes, rinses and wrings out the clothes.

MISS MATTIE BADGER, a young lady of 18 years, residing in Marshall county, Indiana, walked 25 miles in six hours and ten minutes. A young man who started to make the trip with her gave out on the fifteenth mile.

FIVE Atlantic steamers have sailed away never to be heard of more. They are the President, the City of Glasgow, Tempest, Pacific, and City of Boston. Since 1857 some eighty-six ocean steamers have been lost by wreck or fire.

HENRY GERKE has 9,000 acres in grain this year on his ranch, near the northern line of Butte county, and he says it looks better than the crops of any former year in his experience of farming in the Sacramento Valley.

PARTIES are engaged in surveying on the line of the California and Oregon road, from Chico to Red Bluffs. Several lines will be run before the location will be made. It is stated that the road will be pushed on to the head of the Sacramento Valley in time to move the coming crop.

WESTON, the "walkist," really did accomplish, recently, the feat he had proposed to himself, for $1,500, of walking one hundred miles in twenty-two consecutive hours. He walked the distance, and twice around the rink extra, in twenty-one and three-quarter hours. The two extra turns were thrown in to prevent a dispute.

THE "Last Man Brotherhood," an association composed entirely of printers, held its fourteenth anniversary in Philadelphia, recently. The Brotherhood now numbers twenty-two members, eleven having died since its organization. No new members are admitted; and, as its name implies, it will exist until the last man is gone.

THE winds of the Pacific slope may be classed as belonging to three systems: 1st, The sea breeze dependent on inland heat and ocean cold. 2d, The land winds of the north, which sweep through the entire State in the winter, hot in summer, and always dry. 3d, The south winds, which are warm, and come from the ocean loaded with moisture. They belong to the climate of winter and spring.

IT is believed that Whittemore, who was compelled to resign his seat in Congress in consequence of having speculated in the sale of West Point cadetships, has been re-elected. He represents the First Congressional District of South Carolina. The election was a carpet-bag affair, the candidates being Whittemore, Dunn and a negro named Rainey—all Radicals. The negro was induced to withdraw from the campaign in favor of Whittemore.

THERE is said to be carried off from the soil nine pounds of lime in twenty-five bushels of wheat, nine pounds in fifty bushels of oats, and fifteen pounds in thirty-eight bushels of barley. There are thirty-five pounds of lime in two tons of clover, one hundred and forty pounds in twenty-five tons of turnips, and two hundred and seventy pounds in nine tons of potatoes. Some soils contain an abundance of lime for a thousand years, while other soils require an occasional application of lime as a fertilizer.

WE saw Jake nailing up a box the other day, containing some articles which he intended to send by express. From the nature of the contents it was essential that the box should not be inverted on the passage, so we ventured the suggestion to Jake to place the much abused "This side up," etc., conspicuously on the cover. A few days after we saw Jake: "Heard from your goods, Jake? Did they go there safely?" "Every one broke," said Jake savagely. "Lost the hull lot." Hang the express company!" "Did you put 'this side up,' as we told you?" "Yes, I did; and fur fear they shouldn't see it on the kiver, I put it on the bottom, too; confound 'em.

A DISCOVERY IN CANCER THERAPEUTICS.—The cancer has long been a disease beyond the power of the physician. Its treatment has been empirical and unreliable. The remedies employed have been painful, dangerous, and always unsuccessful. Under these circumstances the discovery of a new method of treating cancer will be hailed with general satisfaction by patients and physicians. At the recent annual meeting of the New York Medical University, Professor Scott read a paper in which he stated that repeated experiments had demonstrated the marvelous efficacy of the application of chloride of chromium—a new salt of this rare metal incorporated into stramonium ointment. The preparation, in a few hours, converts the tumor into perfect carbon, and it crumbles away. The remedy causes no pain, and is not poisonous. It promises to alleviate much human misery, and we call the attention of the entire profession to the fact of its discovery.

ADDRESS

To the Nervous & Debilitated,

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is there a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushing of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant, the bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights—your back weak, your knees weak, and but little appetite—and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic persevering successful business men are always those whose generative organs are perfect health? Such men never complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, frrm whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon the prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 19 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 494 Broadway, New York, and 104 South Tenth street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. PRICE—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6,50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

FLORENCE

SEWING MACHINES!

The FLORENCE has now been used on the Pacific Coast seven years; its merits are known and its reputation established.
It is here in daily use in more than six thousand homes, and is effectually speaking for itself like

"Gold Tried in the Fire!"

Competition and opposition—fair and unfair, have not consumed or injured it. It stands the practical test upon a greater range of work than any other Family Sewing Machine in use.

If there is a Florence Machine within one thousand miles of San Francisco not giving entire satisfaction, if informed of it, I will attend to it promptly, without expense of any kind to the owner.

Shoemakers, Tailors and Glove makers are invited to examine our New Florence Manufacturing Machine.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

WORLD RENOWNED

SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867,

TWO GRAND PRIZES,

Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor,

To ELIAS HOWE, JR., as the inventor; and Gold Medal for the best Sewing Machine!

The Highest Honors Ever Conferred for Sewing Machines.

This Machine has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated the world over. The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest muslin or the thickest cloth, with equal facility; and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams: it turns its own hem as it sews, sewing a seam stronger than the fabric itself. To see it hem, fell, tuck, braid, cord, quilt and gather, it seems more like a thing of life than a machine moved by the will of the operator. It is capable of doing every description of sewing that is required in a family; and also for seamstresses and dressmakers it will be found invaluable. They seldom, or never give any trouble in operating, and in a word, are the most satisfactory Sewing Machines in use.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as other first-class machines.

A Medallion likeness of Mr. Howe is embedded in the plates of every Howe Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Sewing Machine should inquire for ELIAS HOWE, JR.'S SEWING MACHINE, and if they are not sold in their vicinity, address the General Agency for Illustrated Circulars, etc., and do not purchase until you have thoroughly investigated these renowned machines.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

—FOR—

Diseases of the Throat & Lungs,

Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat that the most obstinate yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and in all the affections which arise from malarious, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does cure, and does not fail. Containing neither arsenic, quinine, bismuth, zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

NEW WEED SEWING MACHINES!

"The Last and Best!"

The following is the fac-simile of the Medal awarded to the WEED Sewing Machines at the late Paris Exposition:

The Weed Sewing Machine Company have now at last completed their Three Standard styles of Weed Sewing Machines.

First—Their new "Family Favorite." Second—Their new, light and noiseless Manufacturers' Sewing Machine. Thirdly—Their immense heavy "Manufacturers' Favorite." The three together combining the advantages of all others up to the present time, being the BEST made and doing the best work—has received throughout Europe, the States, and on this coast, the First and Highest Premium at each and every public Fair since 1867 (the year it was completed,) where any premium at all has been given or where its strong points have been really exhibited.

There is a difference!—All the Premiums that the WEED Sewing Machine Company claim, from the first and Highest Premium at the Great World's Fair at Paris, in 1867, up to the present time, (see small circulars), are each and every one genuine awards, or we will forfeit $500 for each and every false claim! Other Sewing Machines have had their Premiums, but how many of them in the last two years?

There is a difference! Says the True Chronicle: "This magnificent Sewing Machine comes forward in good time and strikes exactly the right mark." Also, the editor of the Independent says: "Such a Sewing Machine as the Weed—the New F. F.—we have never seen." Thus the New Weed Sewing Machine is the simplest and strongest, the last, and as we believe in modern improvement we may add the BEST Sewing Machine made as yet. It is the best Family Sewing Machine; it is the best Boot, Tailor, Saddler's Sewing Machine; it is the most successful Sewing Machine! for already its name is a household word both in Europe and America, and is rapidly taking the place of all others. Its immense central manufactory is in Hartford, Connecticut. Agents in all the principal cities in the world.

Price, from $65 to $500.

Bear testimony to the wonderful curative effects of

Dr. Joseph Walker's CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS!

Manufactured from the native Herbs and Roots of California.

The Great Blood Purifier!

For Inflammatory and chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy, and all will be well.

"The life of all Flesh is the Blood thereof." Purify the Blood and the health of the whole system will follow. It is a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic.

These Bitters are not a gilded Pill, to delight the eye or please the fancy, but a medical preparation, composed of the best vegetable ingredients known.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and destroyed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

Hair Dressing,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by DR. J. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Massachusetts. Price, $1.

WHEELER & WILSON.

THE GRAND TRIAL OF

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GRANDEST IN THE WORLD!

The Judges, the whole world; and the trial, fifteen years duration.

Practical Use the Test!

THE UNIVERSAL VERDICT:

"The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine the Champion!"

As a Holiday Present, nothing would be more appreciated than one of these Machines.

These unequalled Machines do all the different kinds of work required to be done in a family, and make all the different kinds of Stitches, without the complications of the other Machines.

All persons will please examine the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine before purchasing any other.

The Wheeler & Wilson as is well known, has won at nearly every trial in which it has competed, the highest award of merit. The representatives of other machines, ever confident, have entered the lists, time and again, only to be defeated; and finding it impossible to compete fairly, have endeavored to decry the value of Premiums. They are not slow, however, to boast of the few they have received. But in the grand trial, daily use throughout the world, where only true merit finds favor, and superiority wins the race, the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine stands triumphantly the champion by the verdict of the people.

These Machines are adapted to every Variety of Sewing!

From the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloth. They work equally well upon Silk, Linen, Woolen or Cotton goods, with Silk, Linen or Cotton thread: Seaming, Quilting, Gathering, Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Braiding Embroidering and making Button Holes, with the greatest facility.

If it be inconvenient for the purchaser to visit the salesroom, the order may be forwarded to the office, and it will be as fully filled as if the selection had been made personally.

Full instructions, recently compiled, and giving full information upon every point in detail, accompany each Machine, and enable the most inexperienced to operate without difficulty.

Our interest in the successful working of Machines is not second to that of the purchaser, and we esteem it a privilege to aid, by correspondence or otherwise, any person requiring it.

THE ELLIPTIC SEWING MACHINE,

Warranted the Best!

The Elliptic Sewing Machines are manufactured and warranted by the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company. The late and important improvements enable us to guarantee to every purchaser that the Elliptic Machine will do more work, better work, and a greater variety of work than any other Sewing Machine now in use. The economy of the Elliptic Machine in a family is almost incredible; with one, a good operator can do the work of twelve hands. By it, the making of garments is reduced from a question of hours to one of minutes, as the following table will show:

(It is not to be understood that the following table is the time to make garments, but to do the stitching only.)
